New for 2009

Updated Resume required for scholarship renewal

In the spring of 2009, Incight launched its new employment web site www.incightemployment.org. This new tool merges the needs of two populations, job seekers with disabilities and employers. The web site will consist of a user friendly, web-based tool assisting the disabled with the transition from education to employment by allowing access to internships, jobs (full and part-time) and volunteer opportunities in the community. You will be able to search job listings, read employment tips, and post your resume.
